

A&E Dataset Exploration: Unveiling Critical Patterns

Total Patients

45.71K

Age Groups

8

Discharge Destinations

14

GP Practices

7

Chief Complaints

158

Clear all slicers

Financial Year

2022-23

2023-24

Age Group

All

GP Practice

All

Time Spent in A&E

All

Discharge Destination

All

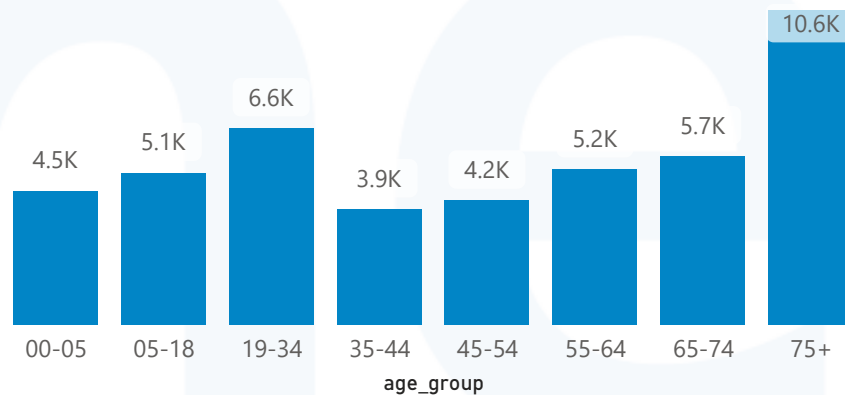

Financial Month

All

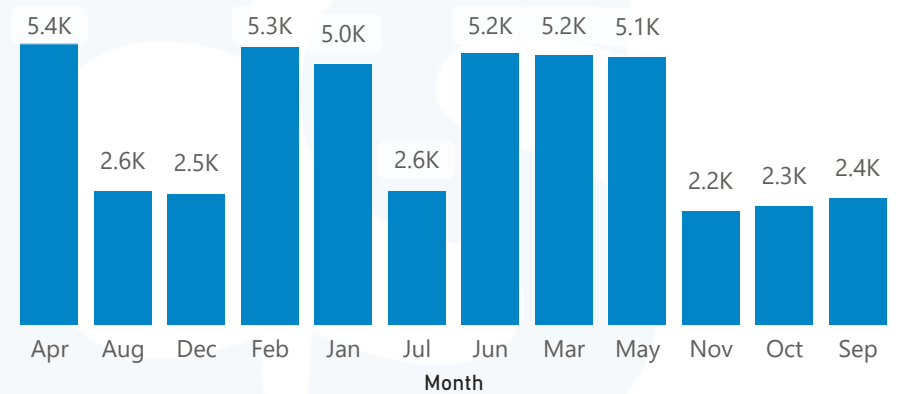

Attendance Count

All

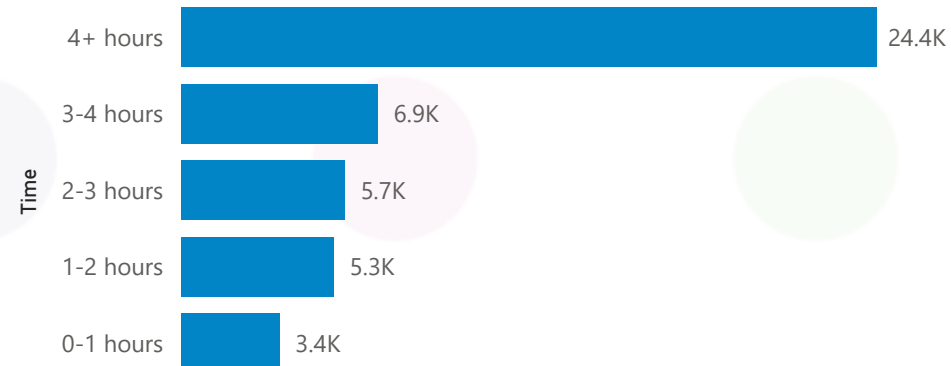

Age Group by Count

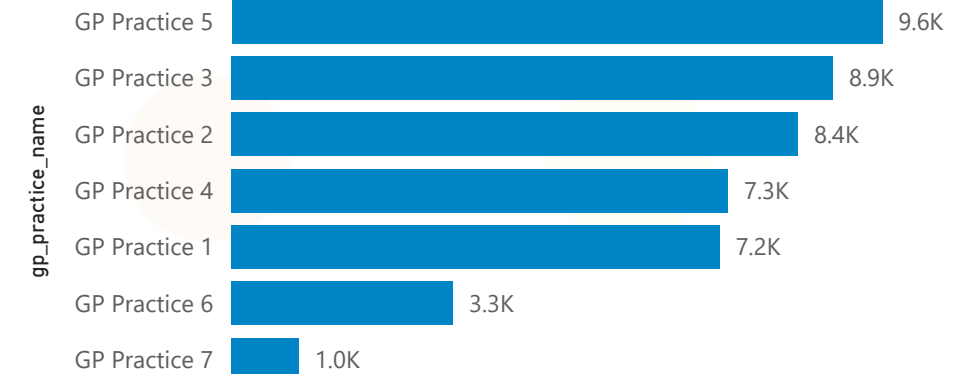

Attendance by Month

Time Spent in A&E

Discharge Destination by Count

A&E Dataset Exploration: Unveiling Critical Patterns

GP Practice 1	GP Practice 2	GP Practice 3	GP Practice 4	GP Practice 5	GP Practice 6	GP Practice 7
---------------	---------------	---------------	---------------	---------------	---------------	---------------

Attendance Change:
2022-23 to 2023-24

-46.4%

Burn Cases Seen Under 4
Hours in 2022-23

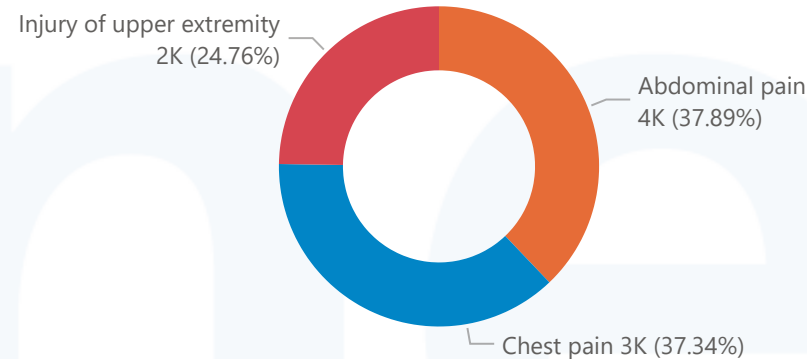

69

Percentage of Patient
Discharge to Home

65.8%

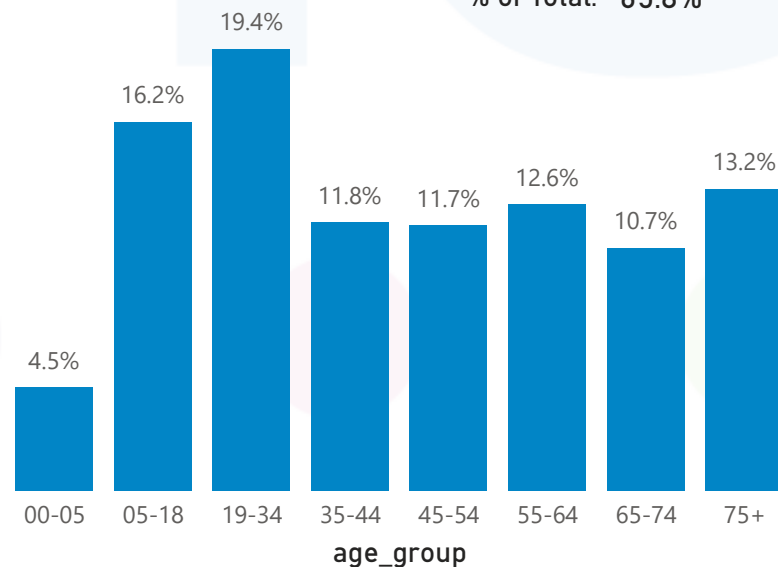

Clear all slicers

Top 3 Chief Complaints

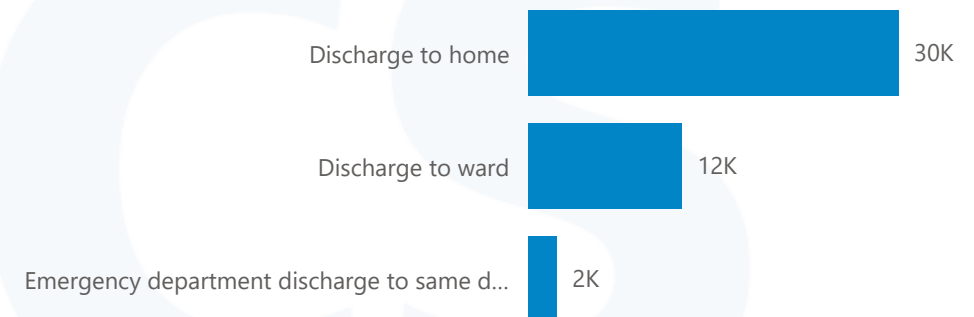

Patients Discharged to Home

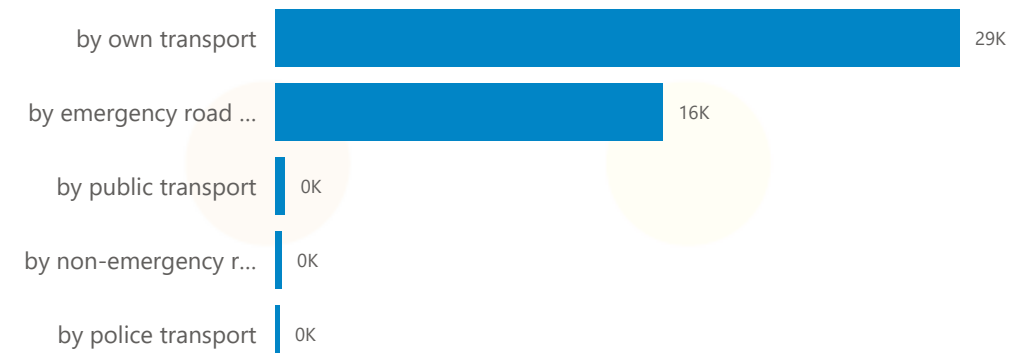

Count: 30086
% of Total: 65.8%

Top 3 Discharge Destinations

Top 5 Arrival Modes

A&E Dataset Exploration: Unveiling Critical Patterns

Summary

- Precisely, 69 burn cases were attended to and resolved under 4 hours in the year 2022/2023 which is 0.52% of the entire complaints seen under 4 hours in that same year.
- There was a decrease of 46.89% in attendances for GP Practice 5 between 2022/23 and 2023/24 .
- Chest pain was a common complaint across all GP practices.
- Overall, 65.8% of the patients were discharged to their homes, and 27.28% were discharged to wards.
- Among the age groups, the 19 to 34 age group had 19.4% of patients discharged to their homes, followed by 5 to 18 age group with 16.2%.